Mrs. Dodge's Musicale,

For St. Agnes' Home.

St. Agnes' Home, 3017 O street, will be the scene of a May festival on Saturday afternoon, May 20, from 3 to 7 o'clock.

There will be no admission fee to the grounds, but ices, strawberries, candy and fancy articles will be sold, and a swing and a grab-bag will provide amusement for the Early Strike Settlement Probable.

No definite action has yet been taken, it was stated today, in reference to the strike of the mill workers for a readjustment of their wage scale. The executive council of the Structural Building Trades Alliance, which has charge of the strike on the workmen's side, held a meeting last night, but at its close the officers said there was nothing to be given out.

From other sources, however, it was learned today that an early nettlement of the controversy is probable.

Charged With Assault on Officer.

Leon L. L. French, said to be a lawyer, and John H. Howard are defendants in a charge of assault on Special Officer Pumprey. The papers in the case were filed with Clerk Potts in the Police Court this morning. The case was set for trial next week. According to statements made by the police, French and Howard were dis-orderly on the street and Special Officer Pumprey went to arrest them. They op-posed the action of the officer, say the po-lice, and assaulted him. Officer Wolf was attracted to the scene and the two officers succeeded in placing the two men un-der arrest.

Church Entertainment.

A very successful musical and literary entertainment was given Wednesday night in the auditorium of the Calvary M. E. Church

for the benefit of the church athletic association. The pleasure of the occasion was much enhanced by the artistic floral deco-

More than all the world beside.
Oh, my heart is sad and lonely
Since my loving husband died.
Now his love I fondly crave.
When my life work here is ended
Let me rest beside his grave.

MOORE. In loving remembrance of KATIE MOORE (nee Reinmuth), who passed away two years ago today, May 19, 1903.

She sleeps within the cold, cold ground,
The dark blue skies above her;
She was too fair and frail for earth.
None knew her but to love her.
Her sweet, fair form has faded now,
Her cheeks have lost their roses;
Her guileless heart, so free from sin,
In heaven now reposes.
